DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 34-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ingenito. Ingenito discloses in column 20, line 1 to column 37, line 9 of the specification a simulation system comprising a patient simulator adapted to simulate physiological behavior, a processor and a memory which are adapted to provide a plurality of scenarios to a user whereby physiological behavior of a patient is simulated upon selection of a scenario. With respect to claim 35, Ingenito discloses that scenarios may be linked into a single scenario. For example, column 31, lines 53-55 discloses that a user may link a single chest compression routine to a chest compression rhythm routine. With respect to claim 36, Ingenito discloses that various parameters may be altered as the scenario is executed. For example, column 32, lines 16-54 discloses the alteration of various parameters in response to the hand positioning as detected by sensors. With respect to claim 37, a wireless interface is disclosed in column 18, lines 40-52 of Ingenito. With respect to claims 38 and 39, Ingenito discloses in column 12, lines 50-68 that a plurality of waveforms are dynamically generated that correspond to the selected scenario.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-33 and 40-45 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to disclose or suggest a device having all of the limitations of claims 1 and 40. In particular, there is no suggestion of a simulation system as recited comprising a memory having instructions for manipulating the breathing valve to regulate flow of pressurized fluid in the manner claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
